

ACTIVITY WORLD

FAMILY & FRIENDS SAVER TERMS & CONDITIONS

This card can only be used by a person whose name appears on the card. Additional evidence will be requested on arrival (such as driving licence or credit card) to confirm the identity. Activity World reserves the right to refuse entry to a customer unable to prove their identity. If the card is misused then Activity World will cancel it immediately and no refund will be made.

There is no limit to the number of visits during peak and off peak periods that can be made using the card, except that it is not permissible to bring in more than the number of children stated on your card at the same time whilst previously admitted children using the pass are still on the premises. You are only allowed to use the card to visit once per day.

Any additional adults or children over two adults and two/three/four children will be charged the normal entry price. You cannot offset an adult entry for a child entry and vice versa. We will refund, through a reduced fee for the pass, the money you paid for your entry, subject to it not exceeding the value of your receipt up to a maximum of £10.00.

This card at off peak times does not allow the holder to take advantage of any drink or food offers Activity World may be running on the day.

The card cannot be used in conjunction with any special offers or for use with the Discovery Dig. We may be able to offer you special prices so please enquire when you visit.

The pass will run to the end date shown on the membership card. We will endeavour to contact you to notify you that the card has expired and provide you with the opportunity to renew it over the phone. All cards will be posted first class as soon as practical, or upon request they can be collected.

The pass cannot be used for party bookings or private hires. We will give a 5% discount for any party or private hire bookings made whilst the card is still valid.

The card will lapse at the end of the period and can be discarded. If you wish to take out a further pass a new card will be supplied. The card will show a membership number which you should retain for future reference.

Any lost card can be replaced subject to an administration charge of £3.00. If posted this form should be sent to: Activity World, Padholme Rd East, Peterborough, Cambs, PE1 5XH. Tel: 01733 558774.
